Topic:

Women of the Frontier

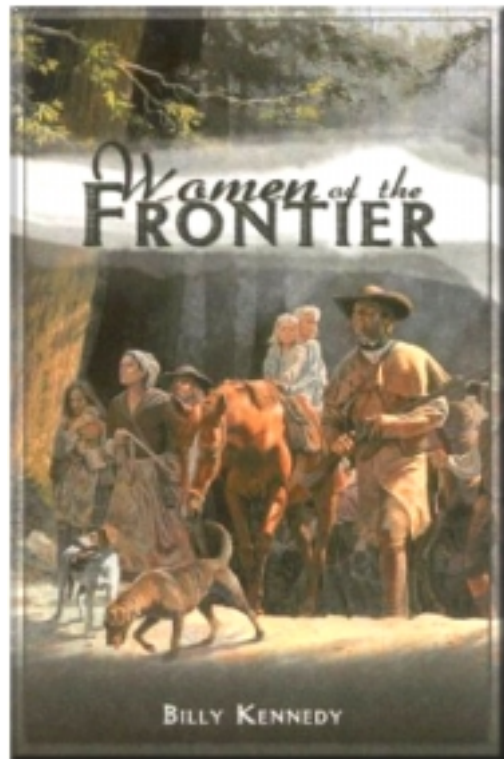

Speaker:

Billy Kennedy

Billy Kennedy is a journalist in Belfast, Northern Ireland who has done extensive research into the history of the Scots-Irish people in the United States. Mr. Kennedy is currently working on a television series with the BBC and American Public Television; this is his eighth book.

This book details the day-to-day lives and fascinating stories of some of the most famous of frontier women. It includes some of the greatest women from the Revolutionary War and frontier era, including Rachel Jackson, Elizabeth Donelson, Sacagawea, Nancy Ward, Polly Finley Crockett Molly Pitcher, Margaret Corbin, Jane McCrea, Nancy Hart, Betty Zane, Ann Bailey, and Betsy Ross.

This book lauds the accomplishments, strength, and courage of American women throughout the centuries. Their sacrifice, dedication, and hard work were instrumental in the creation of the United States of America.
